

The background is a textured, light brown surface. In the upper left, there are several musical notes and treble clefs scattered across the frame. In the lower right, a vintage-style microphone with a silver grille and a black handle is shown. A faint, semi-transparent silhouette of a person's head and shoulders is visible behind the microphone.

VARIOUS GENRES OF INDIAN MUSIC

By Baljit Kaur

The background of the image is a collage of aged, yellowed musical manuscript pages. It features various musical notations, including treble clefs, bass clefs, and staves with notes and rests. The paper has a textured, slightly mottled appearance, giving it a vintage feel. The text is centered on a light beige rectangular area that overlaps the musical background.

India is a country known for its unity in diversity.
The country has twenty eight states and each one has its own mother tongue, religion, culture and tradition. Although music is the one thing which makes all the country together, yet Music too has many types depending on the region, culture and other factors.

VARIOUS GENRES OF INDIAN MUSIC

CLASSICAL MUSIC

SEMI CLASSICAL MUSIC

FOLK MUSIC

LIGHT MUSIC

INDIAN CLASSICAL MUSIC

HINDUSTANI MUSIC

CARNATIC MUSIC

SEMI CLASSICAL MUSIC

```
graph TD; A[SEMI CLASSICAL MUSIC] --> B[THUMRI]; A --> C[DADRA]; A --> D[TAPPA]
```

THUMRI

DADRA

TAPPA

The background of the slide is a collage of aged, yellowed musical manuscript paper. It features various staves of music with notes, rests, and clefs. A large, dark, stylized treble clef is prominently displayed on the left side. The overall aesthetic is that of a historical or vintage music manuscript.

FOLK MUSIC

It is music of the Folk or of the people

LIGHT MUSIC

The background of the image is a collage of aged, yellowed musical manuscript pages. It features various musical notations, including staves with notes, clefs, and a large, prominent treble clef on the left side. The paper has a textured, slightly mottled appearance, suggesting it is old or weathered.

THANK YOU